

Creating a new 3D scene

You create a new 3D scene just as you do any other document type in ArcView. From the Project window, select the 3D Scenes icon at the bottom of the document scrolling list, then double click or press the New button. This action opens a new 3D scene with a Table of Contents and one viewer.