

What is the National Scholarship Programme?

● The National Scholarship Programme for the Support of Mobility of students, PhD students, university teachers, researchers and artists is a scholarship programme approved by the Government of the Slovak Republic in 2005.

● The National Scholarship Programme of the Slovak Republic supports study and research stays at universities and research organisations. It supports two-way mobility – of foreign scholarship holders to Slovakia as well as of Slovak scholarship holders abroad. Scholarships cover living costs related to the scholarship stay. Slovak scholarship applicants may also apply for a travel grant.

● The Programme scholarship holders are scholarship holders of the Government of the Slovak Republic. The National Scholarship Programme is financed by the Ministry of Education, Science, Research and Sport of the Slovak Republic, and administered by SAIA, n. o.

SAIA, n. o.

● SAIA, n. o. (Slovak Academic Information Agency) is a non-governmental non-profit organisation that, since its establishment in 1990, has been implementing programmes and providing services aimed at enhancement of civil society, and assisting in internationalisation of education and research in Slovakia. SAIA provides information and advisory services related to study and research mobility, administers several scholarship and grant programmes, and promotes Slovak universities and research organisations abroad.
