Terrain

The terrain is a hilly forest situated between 200-500m above the sea level. Runnability is generally good. The surface relief is dominantly karstic, characterised by numerous smaller or larger sink-holes and depressions, but the region is also a typical hilly country with versatile valley systems.

All races will be conducted in accordance with IOF competition rules, including winning times.

All competitions take place within 25 km from Pécs.

Ceremonies

The opening ceremony will be organised on 2 July (Saturday) after the sprint qualification and the closing ceremony on 8 July (Friday) after the long distance final. The official banquet takes place on 6 July 2011, from 7 pm. in Pécs. Entrance fee 50 EUR. Since the event welcomes a restricted number of guests (1000), registration is required.
